Title: Early Career Mini-Grants for Women

Summary: (limit 100 words)

Early career women educators (1-5 years of experience teaching) apply for mini-grants of up to $250. This year, five grants were given to purchase materials and equipment to use in their classroom. To receive the grant, applicants must submit the application by the published deadline. On the application, they must explain how they will spend the money, and how they hope to use the materials and supplies in their classroom. Applicants will attend the April meeting to report the impact the materials and supplies had on their students.
