Program Project Icebreaker

Title: Liz Morton Calendars for Veterans Project

Summary: (limit 100 words)

Started by Alpha Xi member Liz Morton years ago, this project is fairly easy but pays big dividends. Members bring calendars to donate to the Alvin C. York Veterans Hospital in Murfreesboro and the VA center in Chattanooga. All types of calendars are gathered. Some of the calendars are ones that members receive in the mail. Others are purchased by members for this projects. Both facilities that receive the calendars are very appreciative of the donation. It seems like a simple gift, but, to the patients in the hospital, it's a big thing!

Two photos attached: Alpha Xi Chapter members are pictured with calendars that were brought to the September meeting. Alpha Xi member Suzanne Rushworth delivered calendars to the Alvin C. York Veterans Hospital in Murfreesboro. She is pictured with Jeff Sykes, the volunteer director at the facility.
