Tennessee State Organization Bylaws

All offices, personnel positions, boards, activities and committees named in this document refer to state organization offices, personnel, boards, activities and committees unless otherwise noted.

ARTICLE I NAME

- Section A. The name of this organization shall be the Tennessee State Organization of The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International (hereby referred to as the Tennessee State Organization).
- Section B. Each chapter in the Tennessee State Organization shall be designated by a Greek letter or a combination of Greek letters, beginning with Alpha Chapter, Tennessee.
- Section C. Tennessee State Organization is chartered by and registered with the state of Tennessee as a not-for-profit educational organization. This designation does not include exemption from state and local taxes.

ARTICLE II OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Tennessee State Organization shall be to

- A. Promote the Purposes of The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International as found in the Constitution, Article II, Section D;
- B. Act as liaison between chapters and the International organization;
- C. Provide support for its chapters including
  1. organizing chapters within the state organization;
  2. monitoring chapter progress;
  3. providing leadership training for current and future chapter and state organization leaders;
  4. sharing/demonstrating strategies for strengthening chapters;
  5. implementing an intervention plan when chapters show signs of stagnation or cease to thrive; and
  6. approving the dissolution of a chapter when all intervention efforts have failed and assisting in the transfer of members to another chapter.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP

Section A. Membership

1. Membership in The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International shall be by invitation.
2. At the time she joins the Society, a member becomes a member of the international Society, a state organization, and a chapter, after paying her dues.

Section B. Classification - The membership of Tennessee State Organization shall be composed of active, reserve, honorary, and collegiate members of chapters in the state. All membership practices are in accordance with the The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International as found in the Constitution, Section A, Article III.

1. Active members shall be women who are or have been employed as professional educators at the time of their election. An active member shall participate in the activities of the chapter.
2. Reserve membership shall be granted only to a member who is unable to participate fully in the activities of the chapter because of medical disability, geographic location, and/or no technological connection/skill. Reserve status shall be granted by a majority vote of the chapter. A reserve member, so requesting, shall be restored to active membership by writing a letter to the president stating a desire to return to active membership and resume paying active dues.

3. Honorary Members

- a. A chapter or state organization honorary member shall be a woman not eligible for active membership who has rendered notable service to education or to women and is elected to honorary membership in recognition of such service.
- b. They shall be privileged to participate in all activities except that of holding office.

4. Collegiate members shall be undergraduate or graduate students who meet the following criteria:

- a. Bachelor student collegiate members shall
  - i. be enrolled in an institution offering coursework leading to a career in education; and have the intent to continue academically and professionally in the field of education; and
  - ii. be enrolled within the last two years of their bachelor's education degree.
- b. Graduate/Masters/Doctoral student collegiate members shall have Graduate/Masters/ Doctoral standing in an institution offering coursework in the field of education and have the intent to continue academically and professionally in the field of education. When a collegiate member starts her career as a paid educator, she will pay active member dues and become an active member. If a collegiate member does not pursue a career as an educator, her membership will expire upon graduation or withdrawal from the education degree program.

Section C. Honorary - State honorary members may be recommended by the Tennessee State Organization Membership Committee upon nomination by a member, chapter, or committee and elected by the Executive Board by a majority vote.

Section D. Termination - Every Tennessee chapter shall maintain a continuous record of the status of each of its members. Chapter minutes must include the names of members terminated, those asking to resign, and those seeking reserve status, including the reason and date action was taken.

Section E. Chapter - Chapters in Tennessee State Organization shall have full power to act in matters of chapter membership.

ARTICLE IV FINANCE

Section A. Governance Where applicable, the Constitution, Article IV, shall govern Tennessee State Organization finances.

Section B. Mandated Funds In accordance with the Constitution, Article IV, F., Tennessee State Organization shall maintain three mandated funds: an Available Fund, a Permanent Fund, and a Scholarship Fund. Available portions of all funds shall be invested to receive the maximum return, with monies being transferred from investments as needed.

1. The Available Fund shall be identified as the operating fund and shall require a budget.
2. The Tennessee State Organization Permanent Fund may be used for the following:
  - a. Purchasing induction paraphernalia,
  - b. Purchasing articles and equipment of a permanent nature, and
  - c. Technology-related upgrades and licenses for computer software.
3. Tennessee State Organization shall set aside for its permanent fund twenty-five percent (25%) of its annual dues until the total of the current assets in its permanent fund is not less than thirty percent (30%) of its available fund annual income, at which time the Executive Board may reduce or discontinue further allocations.
4. The Scholarship fund shall be designated as the repository for all scholarship monies.
5. The Scholarship fee paid by a member shall be divided as follows:
  - a. One hundred percent (100%) to the state organization fund if the chapter does not maintain a chapter scholarship fund or forty percent (40%) to the state if the chapter does maintain a scholarship fund.
  - b. Sixty percent (60%) retained by the chapter having a chapter scholarship fund.

Section C. Annual Dues

1. Dues shall be determined by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members at the annual convention upon the recommendation of the Finance Committee and the Executive Board.
2. Any recommendation for a change in dues shall be published in the February issue of the DKG Tennessee News.
3. Annual dues and international scholarship fees ($1.00 per active and reserve member) shall be paid no later than June 30 of each year. On July 1, members shall be dropped for nonpayment of dues and fees.
4. Payment of dues and fees
  - a. New members shall become members when dues are paid.
  - b. New members who join between July 1 and December 31 shall pay full international dues for current fiscal year.
  - c. New members who join between January 1 and March 31 shall pay international half dues.
  - d. New members joining between April 1 and June 30 shall pay full international dues for the ensuing year.
  - e. Reinstated members shall pay full annual dues whenever reinstated.
  - f. Chapter and state organization dues may be pro-rated as the chapter/state organization determines.

Section D. Financial Controls

Tennessee State Organization Rules

All offices, personnel positions, boards, activities and committees named in this document refer to state organization offices, personnel, boards, activities and committees unless otherwise noted.

1 NAME

2 OBJECTIVES

The Tennessee State Organization Rules provide clear guidance for effective and expeditious work of the Society in accordance with accepted traditions and practices of Tennessee State Organization. They clarify and expand, but do not replace, policies and responsibilities set forth in the Constitution and International Standing Rules, and the Tennessee State Organization Bylaws. The Bylaws are the policies of the state organization; these Rules provide guidance in their implementation.

3 MEMBERSHIP

3.0 Membership: General

- 3.0.1 A member may submit a recommendation for a candidate's election to any chapter.
- 3.0.2 An active or reserve member who does not belong to a chapter because of geographic isolation shall be retained as a state active or state honorary reserve member. Status as a state member must be requested. State membership refers to the unit to which the member belongs.
- 3.0.3 Chapters are encouraged to refer to the Go To Guide, Membership Section; the Guidelines for Chapter Membership Chair; and the International Standing Rules, Sections 3.1-3.5, for additional guidance in membership matters.
- 3.0.4 A collegiate member may participate in the activities of the Society except holding office.
- 3.0.5 A collegiate member may serve as Parliamentarian since it is not an elected office.

3.1 Membership: Chapter

- 3.1.1 When membership in a chapter reaches 50 or more, the chapter shall be encouraged to work toward expansion.
- 3.1.2 The chapter shall record in the chapter minutes the names of the members terminated, including the reason and date of termination.

4 FINANCE

4.0 Finance: General

- 4.0.1 The Tennessee State Organization Finance Committee shall prepare a biennial budget in even-numbered years and present it to the Executive Board for approval. In the second year of the budget, the committee may make adjustments as necessary.
- 4.0.2 The treasurer shall publish an annual financial statement of revenue and expenses for the previous fiscal year in the November issue of the DKG Tennessee News.
- 4.0.3 Transportation reimbursement for automobile travel expenses shall be at $0.10 per mile less than the current state of Tennessee reimbursement.

- 4.0.4 Budgeted expenses may be reimbursable for mileage, meals, hotel expenses, and early registration fees. Meals, one-half the cost of double room accommodations and transportation shall be reimbursed up to the stated amount in the annual budget, as determined by the Tennessee State Organization Finance Committee.
- 4.0.5 All monies for any state organization activity must be receipted and copies of receipts and collected funds forwarded to the treasurer within 45 days after the event for audit and record keeping. Reimbursement for the convention must be turned in by June 30.
- 4.0.6 Should the state organization or its chapters desire to sell items at international conventions and regional conferences, a proposal listing items for sale must be submitted for approval to the international president prior to the fall Administrative Board meeting.
- 4.0.7 Any funds remaining in the state organization budget at the close of the fiscal year shall carry over to the next year's Available Fund budget.
- 4.0.8 Committees, chapters, and individuals may apply to the first vice president to sell in the convention Marketplace, provided that 100% of the profit from committees and chapters and at least 10% of the profit from individual sales benefits the chapter or state organization.
- 4.0.9 Committees and area directors are funded by the established budget that is under the jurisdiction of the Tennessee State Organization Finance Committee. Committee chairs must approve all committee expenses before reimbursement.
- 4.0.10 A Request for Payment form, accompanied by receipts, must be sent for reimbursement approval to the president within 30 days of an event. She will forward all approved expenses within 45 days of the event to the treasurer for payment.
- 4.0.11 All expense checks must be signed by the treasurer.
- 4.0.12 All reimbursement checks should be cashed within 90 days of issue date and will be void after 180 days.

4.1 Dues and Fees

- 4.1.1 The state organization annual dues shall be fourteen dollars ($14.00) per active member and seven dollars ($7.00) per reserve and collegiate member.
- 4.1.2 All dues and fees shall be collected by the chapter treasurer. State organization and International dues and fees shall be forwarded as instructed by the state and international organization. Chapters that have a chapter scholarship for members retain 80 cents of the international scholarship fee and forward the remaining 20 cents to the state organization treasurer.
- 4.1.3 All state organization and international dues and fees should be sent, as instructed, no later than July 10 of each year.
- 4.1.4 The treasurer shall transfer one dollar annually per active and reserve members' state organization dues to the state organization scholarship fund.

4.2 Officers and Related Personnel

- 4.2.1 The president, executive secretary, treasurer, editor, and webmaster shall have a budgeted amount for communication and office expenses.
- 4.2.2 The treasurer, executive secretary, editor, and webmaster shall receive an annual honorarium.
- 4.2.3 The president, or her designee, shall be reimbursed for miles traveled for one

- visit per biennium to each chapter, up to the allowed budget allotment.
- 4.2.4 The Tennessee Organization of DKG budget shall contain designated funds to assist officers and related personnel (incoming in odd years and current in even years) in attending the International Convention and Conference. An itemized statement of all business expenditures shall be forwarded to the president by each officer and related personnel within two weeks following the close of the event. Reimbursement shall not exceed the budgeted funds.
- 4.2.5 The convention budget shall provide officer and related personnel registration, room, and meals.
- 4.2.6 The treasurer shall purchase the president's pin that is to be given at the time of her installation.
- 4.2.7 Each immediate past president shall be inducted into the Iris Circle at the Southeast Regional Conference following her biennium. The current president will present the Iris Circle pin that is purchased by the state organization.

4.3 State Organization Convention

- 4.3.1 The Tennessee State Organization Convention (hereafter referred to as the "convention" unless otherwise noted) shall be self-supporting.
- 4.3.2 The treasurer shall collect all convention registration fees and deposit them in the convention account from which convention expenses are paid.
- 4.3.3 Funds from the convention budget will pay the expenses of officers and related personnel, Society Representative, and speakers.
- 4.3.4 Past state organization presidents attending the convention shall have a $25.00 deduction or reimbursement on their fees for registration.
- 4.3.5 Members inducted within the year shall have a $5.00 deduction or reimbursement on their registration fee.
- 4.3.6 The convention chair shall pay pre-convention expenses with a debit card issued by the treasurer. She shall report all pre-convention expenses to the treasurer no later than fifteen days following the convention. The treasurer will publish the convention financial report in the September DKG Tennessee News following the convention.

4.4 Leadership Conferences, Seminars, Legislative Activities and Retreats

- 4.4.1 Fundraising from the Silent Auction and other leadership-designated fundraisers, plus leadership funding from the Available Fund through members' dues, shall be applied to leadership functions before any registration fee is charged.
- 4.4.2 The Leadership Conference for Committee Planning shall be funded by members' dues through the Available Fund and through leadership-designated fundraising, except for lodging and travel. Group rates for lodging shall be made available to participants. A registration fee may not be charged.
- 4.4.3 The Leadership Conference for Chapter Officers shall be funded by members' dues through the Available Fund and through leadership-designated fundraising, except for lodging and travel. Group rates for lodging shall be made available to participants. A registration fee may be charged.
- 4.4.4 The Leadership Management Seminars (beginning and advanced) shall be funded by members' dues through the Available Fund and through leadership-designated fundraising, inclusive of training materials, presenters, and lodging. Participants supply their own travel funds. A registration fee may be charged to discourage cancellation.

- 4.4.5 Members' dues shall partially fund annual legislative activities and biennial arts retreats through the Available Fund, except for lodging and travel. Group rates for lodging may be made available to participants. A registration fee may be charged for a group meal and other event expenses.

4.5 Publications

- 4.5.1 All publications of the Tennessee State Organization shall be approved by the Executive Board and budgeted by the Finance Committee.
- 4.5.2 Approved publications include
- A. DKG Tennessee News (published four times per year),
  - B. Tennessee State Organization Directory (published every four years),
  - C. Chapter President's Handbook (updated biennially), and
